

Paying you by BACS

If you have any problems completing the form please contact your Atradius account manager or your broker.

Please return the completed form to Atradius at the address shown below.

We can pay your claims, and your share of recovered debts, by BACS - Bank Automated Clearing System.

To accept this method of payment, simply complete and return this form. The real benefit to you is that cleared funds will be available in your account on the day that they are transferred (All customers will be provided with details of how the payment has been calculated). This service is at present only available to customers with a sterling account in the UK.
